Mill Rocks is a 39 unit residential apartment building located in downtown Jersey City. Taking its name from an area of the historic Mill Creek, an important economic driver in the 1700's, the building is anything but traditional. Mill Rocks contemporary design and use of modern building materials, make it an edgy and iconic addition to the Jersey City streetscape. This area of downtown Jersey City, aptly named The Village, is cutting edge and eclectic, yet possesses a neighborhood feel that attracts artists, young professionals and longtime Jersey City residents alike for its lower cost and proximity to mass transit. Mill Rocks is located only 7 blocks from the Grove Street PATH station and all the local shops, bars and eateries that make
